

TRY TO LIBERATE PRISONER; TWO DIE FROM SHOOTING THAT RESULTS

Policeman Hutchcraft, Terribly Beaten, Fires With Fatal Effect Into Mob

TAKE MEN TO HOSPITAL

Two With Bullet Holes in Bodies Are Cared For—Fayette County Authorities Making Investigation

Two men are dead and three others are in the hospital seriously injured as the result of an attack of an angry mob of Slavs upon the Fayette City lockup Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock in an effort to liberate a prisoner whom Chief of Police J. W. Hutchcraft had placed under arrest. The policeman fired in self defense into the crowd after having been terribly beaten and mauled with his own mace.

THE DEAD.

Samuel Petros, aged 26, of Smock, single, shot near heart; killed instantly.

Mike Barnock, aged 25 of Fayette City, shot once in abdomen and twice in breast; leaves wife and one child; died this morning at 1:10 o'clock at Memorial Hospital, Monongahela.

THE INJURED.

Frank Vesely, aged 28, shot in abdomen; taken to Monongahela hospital.

Peter Vesely, aged 40, shot in abdomen; taken to Uniontown hospital.

Chief of Police J. W. Hutchcraft, head almost beaten to pulp and cut about neck; injuries severe, but will not prove fatal; married and has one child; taken to Uniontown hospital.

Shortly before 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Policeman Hutchcraft was called to the Grandview hall on Fayette City hill, where a Slavish celebration was in progress. He had quelled trouble there not long before. He placed under arrest John Uhar, and started to the lockup with him. On the way there he lost his gun from his pocket.

The gun was picked up by a Slavish woman, it is stated, who in turn took it home and told some of her friends. A crowd of about 60 foreigners followed the policeman and the man under arrest. Uhar was placed in a cell. On the way to the jail Burgess Ashton had given Police Hutchcraft a gun, fearing trouble with the mob following.

After placing Uhar in his cell Hutchcraft stepped to the door. A part of the mob surged in, including the four who were shot. Thinking he had no gun, it is said, they attacked him. Taking his mace from him, the foreigners started in to beat up the policeman. They kicked him in the head and mauled him terribly before he managed to pull the gun given him by Burgess Ashton from his pocket. He started firing somewhat blindly, but every bullet took effect. Petros started from the door of the lockup, walked about 30 feet and fell dead. Barnock fell to the sidewalk. The two Veselys fell and were unable to arise.

GAS PIPE CANNON DANGEROUS WEAPON

Celebration of German Almost Ends Distastefully—"Gun" Whizzes Two-Hundred Feet to Land on a Porch

When he loaded a piece of bent gas pipe with powder, dirt and cork on the Fourth, Joe Cherven, a German, didn't think of the dire consequences likely to follow. He planted it in Prospect alley and touched the fuse. There was a tremendous explosion. A piece of the gas pipe sailed out of the ground and took in the direction of Lincoln avenue. It whizzed past the head of a woman not missing her more than a foot and shattered a limb from a tree. The gas pipe, its force spent, landed on a porch 200 feet distant, where a woman and her children were sitting. They were terribly frightened but not nearly as much frightened as Cherven, who hastened to the police station to arrest himself. He said it was the first celebration he had ever participated in in this country, and it would be the last. He left a forfeit of $3 which he did not collect.

FIRECRACKER AND PISTOL REAP TOLL

One Boy Accidentally Shoots Hole in Hand—Two Others Have Eyes Injured of Which One May Lose Sight

The Fourth of July was not without its toll of accidents in Charleroi, firecrackers and toy guns doing their damage. A number were slightly burned, and one boy may lose the sight of one eye as the result of his Fourth celebration.

In the morning Kenneth Hill, the 13-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hill accidentally pulled the trigger of a blank cartridge gun when the mouth of the weapon was almost against his left hand. The powder went nearly through his hand. He ran to the office of Dr. T. M. Faddis, who dressed the wound.

Franklin Thompson, colored the 13-year old son of Jess Thompson of North Charleroi may lose the sight of one eye from the effects of Fourth of July celebrating. The boy says he was watching some others firing firecrackers when a large cracker thrown by one of them exploded in front of his eye. Dr. Stahlman attended him.

Earl Mahoney aged 10, son of Mrs. J. Mahoney of McKean avenue sustained a painful injury to an eye through holding a firecracker in his hand while shooting it off. His eyesight will be saved. Dr. Stahlman dressed the injury.

The five-year old son of Peter Gerdon at Allenport had his face badly burned by a firecracker. It is not thought the boy will suffer any ill consequences.

FOURTH QUIET HOLIDAY HERE

Many go Out of Town for the Day—Donora Proves Popular Place

The Fourth was rather quietly spent in Charleroi, the children's sports at the playgrounds in the afternoon and the ball game being practically the only features. Large crowds went to Donora to witness the big celebration there and Eldora Park proved an attractive place. Rain drove a large part of the crowd home early but that was after a good part of the celebration was over. At Donora there was a good program, which consisted of a balloon ascension, a monster parade led of Nirella's band of Pittsburgh, speechmaking, a marathon race a field meet and fireworks. The field meet was hotly contested. Paul Nutt of Charleroi won third place for the Monessen A. C. team in the relay. Albert Schoener took part in the marathon race.

Thomas Mosier visited over the Fourth in Uniontown.

BIG CROWD SPENDS HOLIDAY AT PARK

Eldora Proves an Attractive Place—Paogram as Announced, Carried Out

One of the largest crowds in the history of the resort was at Eldora Park on the Fourth. It was a great day for the young people, who were there to dance and to have a good time generally. There were family and neighborly picnics galore, and large crowds came and went during the entire day. While the rain in the evening slightly dampened the ardor of the merrymakers, it did not have much of any effect on the enjoyment. All the park amusements were taxed to their limit, and the fireworks display in the evening was highly enjoyed.

FOURTH EVENTS STOPPED

Rain Causes Postponement of Local Observance

CELEBRATION JULY 18

Rain coming just at the time when the celebration was about to start put a sudden and unlooked for end to the Fourth of July observance in Charleroi Thursday evening. Preparations had just been about made to start the parade which was to be one of the chief features of the celebration, the band was on the scene, and the people were gathering when the storm came. This was at 6 o'clock, and the rain lasted throughout the greater part of the evening, so that a postponement of festivities was absolutely necessary. Consequently the only celebration out of the ordinary was a brief band concert given by a make-up band at the corner of McKean avenue and Fifth street. This band, an affair made up for the occasion consisted of some of the best talent of the Monongahela valley, including some of the former members of the Charleroi Concert band. A celebration of the twentieth anniversary of the incorporation of the borough will take place on July 18 to take the place of the Fourth event.

Children were being placed in line at the playgrounds in "The Pines" ready for the parade. Almost without warning the rain came and the children had to scamper for shelter.

During the afternoon a good program of sports was gone through at the playgrounds by the children. This program consisted of races and contests of various kinds.

ENTERTAINS CLASS OF HIGH SCHOOL

Miss Violet Lutes entertained about 22 of her classmates on Wednesday evening at her country home in Fallowfield township. At about 8 o'clock, her guests, the Charleroi High school classes of 1912 and 1913 were invited to the dining room where they partook of a bountiful chicken dinner, after which music and games were the order of the evening. At 11 o'clock, the hostess brought in a lunch of ice cream, cake, etc. to keep her guests from "heat prostrations" during the long ride homeward.

Somewhere around 12:30 o'clock, the citizens of Charleroi were awakened by the beautiful strains of "My Country 'Tis of Thee," when, upon investigation it was found to be none other than those young patriots ushering in the grand and glorious Fourth of July, from the seats of Latham's large delivery wagon.

ENTERTAINS FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church were entertained Wednesday at the home of Mrs. S. E. Rodgers of Fallowfield township. About 60 were present and an elegant country dinner was served under the shade of the big trees on the lawn. The program of the afternoon was helpful and spiritual. Mrs. Vankirk as usual inspired all with her cheery words and made an earnest plea for new members. Mrs. Daily of Pittsburgh told briefly of the good being done by the different auxiliaries, and gave glimpses of real life in India and China and the good work being done by our missionaries. Mrs. Furness spoke of the schools and missionary work in Mexico. Little Egbert Richards was made a life member of The Light Bearers.

Through the kindness of W. B. Pfeighardt excellent automobile service was provided to take the ladies to and from the Rodgers home, which the society extend many thanks.

Pros to Hold Convention

D. N. Hall, of Cherveni Delegate to National Meeting at Atlantic City

D. N. Hall, of Charleroi, will leave July 8 in company with a number of others from the Pittsburgh district for Atlantic City, where the Prohibition national convention will be held. Mr. Hall goes as a delegate to the convention having been elected by popular vote at the last primary election. The convention will be in session July 10, 11 and 12, unless like the Democratic convention, it works itself into a deadlock. So far it is stated there have been no nominees suggested for the leading candidates for president and vice president. The delegates from Western Pennsylvania will travel in the "Pittsburgh Special."

BRIGADES TAKE PART IN BATTLE

Charleroi Military Organizations Go to Perryopolis

ROYALLY ENTERTAINED

The Charleroi Brigade, Capt R. Dale Jolliffe commanding, and Company E of the Boys Brigade of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church, Capt. Charles Wallgren commanding, went to Perryopolis on the Fourth to take part in a sham battle which was a part of a Fourth of July celebration at the town founded by George Washington. The Charleroi forces were united in an offensive battle against the Perryopolis and Belle Vernon military companies, making a normal attack, which was followed by an exciting and spectacular battle. There were no judges, and no decision was rendered. The Charleroi boys and their commanders, however, believe they gave a good account of themselves. All were royally entertained by the people of Perryopolis and the campaign was as enjoyable as it was bloodless.

CHARLEROI COUPLE WEDS ON FOURTH

William L. Hott and Miss Mary Alice Patterson, both of Charleroi, were quietly married at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning. Rev. E. N. Duty, of the First Christian church performed the ceremony at his home on Crest avenue. The ring ceremony was used. The wedding was a quiet affair. The couple will go to housekeeping at 1001 1-2 Tenth street where they have a home furnished.

Monessen Celebrators Occasion Accident by Applause

ONE IS SERIOUSLY HURT

Boy Suffers Concussion of Brain—Twenty-Five Watch Parade

Five persons were seriously injured and 10 others hurt to some extent at Monessen the morning of the Fourth, when a porch on which a group of 25 were standing gave way. The most injured is John Sabarna, aged between 15 and 21 years, who suffered a concussion of the brain. He was taken to the Monessen-Charleroi hospital. It was feared his injuries would terminate fatally, but this morning it was stated that he was improving somewhat. Others of the party most seriously injured were: Mrs. Peter Montel, aged 22, back severely injured and ankle broken; Mike Davis, aged 35, back wrenched and bruised; Charles Balush, aged 25, injured internally and back wrenched; Mrs. Anna Lasko, aged 25, side wrenched and ankle broken; Andy Tasko, aged 9 months, serious bruises.

The group was standing on the porch over Peter Schwartz' meat market at 250 Donner avenue watching the parade at about 10:30. As certain part of the parade passed there was unusual excitement at those standing on the porch started to applaud and stamp their feet. This caused the porch to give way. The occupants were dashed to the street 16 or 20 feet below, falling in a mass. Sabarna's head came in contact with the pavement it is understood and caused concussion of the brain. He has been in this country only about a month, his mother and father living in the old country.

B. Y. P. U. TO HOLD GROUP RALLY AT LIBRARY CHURCH

10 ARRESTS ON FOURTH HOLIDAY

There were ten arrests made on the Fourth by the police, the day being comparatively quiet. These ten consisted of the usual D. and D. crowd with one exception. The exception was a fight between a couple of foreigners.

SOME OBJECT LESSONS.

Once more the celebration of our national holiday, the Fourth of July,
emphasizes the necessity for a safe
and sane observance. While the toll
of accidents in our community is not large or serious, looking at it impersonally and collectively, it is enough
to cause still more serious consideration another year. A few minor accidents considered in the aggregate do not cause much public concern, but when these come individually into the household, and the suffering, cost and inconvenience and handicaps from the
accidents that follow are considered,
it puts a new light on the subject.
Then it is that we resolve to be more careful another year, and in safeguarding our own families, it also behooves us to safeguard the families of others as well.

There are many ways that the Fourth of July may be fittingly celebrated other than by the indiscriminate use of explosives. One of the methods that is coming in vogue, and for which a special plea is being made, is by means of historical pa-rants. This affords a wide field in a way of public attractions, and its scope is practically limitless. Demonstrations that appeal to the intellect and imagination may be made
to take the place of the more rude
and barbarous methods of noise and danger, and it is these that should occupy the minds of our patriotic people in the future. A single child minus an eye, a hand or in an otherwise crippled condition is an object lesson of sufficient import in any community to furnish an impetus for a safer and more sane observance of the Fourth of July.

TAKE A SECOND THOUGHT

In the lull between the close of the National conventions of the two great political parties and the opening of the campaign, it is well for us to take a sober, second look at the conditions of the country, as well as the causes and
effects of political agitation generally. If this is done in the proper spirit by the people in general, it will do away with much of the partisan bitterness and rancor that usually arises during a Presidential campaign.

There is no reason why a National campaign should be detrimental to business if each and every person accepts the differences of political opinions as a matter of principles and not personalities, and if each side will

refrain from accusing the other of trying to wreck the business of the country and destroy the government.
There may be an honest difference
of opinion as to a correct fiscal policy,
but as for one side trying to ruin
the country, that is the sheerest nonsense. It is this bitter partisanship
that makes political campaigns disastrous to business, and if this can be eliminated, no checks to the great
industrial impetus that is now apparent will be encountered. When each citizen ceases to believe that this neighbor of opposite political faith is a traitor and accords him the same
privilege that he claims for himself,
political campaigns will have no effect upon the business of the country.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Too much system is as fatal as not enough.

be tried of moving a span by barges.
Quite right in that, but it might be well to bear in mind that no span was ever moved before this by the method that will be employed; this will be no pontoon bridge.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"What do foreigners know about the Fourth of July?" That was a question that was perhaps asked many times during the day Thursday,
when the foreigner was very much in evidence as a holiday seeker in this community. That the foreigner is not imbued with the spirit of the day,
however, is a mistaken belief, as there is hardly a nation of continental Europe that has not in times gone by
been fired with the spirit of revolt
very similar to our own American Revolution, and the memory of these
whether successful or unsuccessful,
is still fired by observance of our own glorious anniversary. The following from the Pittsburg Dispatch reveals the true sentiment of the foreigner
regarding the celebration of the Fourth of July, and the memories it awakens
regarding the strikes for liberty and freedom in their own respective countries.

"What the dickens do you fellows
care for the American Fourth of July?" was the blunt query put to a motley bunch in one of the most cosmopolitan saloons of the city on "the Hill," of course, where there was a goodly representation of all the nations that go to make up the wonderful population of Pittsburg.

"Vat ees your Foort of July?" said

a swarthy Calabrian in answer.
"Est-a ees remembra youra granda revolution. We too—a celebra our revolution. Italia Unita! Viva Vittore Emanuel! Vivi le Revolutiona!"
"And what matter you not forget
our 14 Juillet, Thermidor, ze gran
consummacion of ze great revolution
"Francaise, 1793?" was the indignant
cry of a Frenchman.

"Your Declaration was in 1776 and when you yet were talk about your constitutioning we made our Republique
Premier by ze fine fait accompli of Monseur Guillotine, and we cut ze
head off from Louis XVI and Marie de Austrie. We do celebrate your Juillet 4 for ze grand raison zat it is ze celebration of all revolutioning.
Vive le Revolution!"

"And here's a glass to de memoir
of de great Kosciusko, who fought for
de freedom of Poland and Count Pulaski, who help your Washington to win de grand Etats Unis from de Britons," shouted a Pole.

"And one glass other for Lojas Kossuth, who made for the Hun revolution of 1848, to destroy the rule of the Austrians," cried a bearded Hungarian.

"And here's a bowl of wine of Hellas to the memory of Markos Bozza-ris, hero of Missolonghi," screamed
a handsome Greek.

"And a libation of Falernian to the memory of Garibaldi, the Washington of Italy," said another Italian.

So the cosmopolitan celebration of America's Fourth rang through the people of the nations, each exclaiming having a national and revolutionary reason for celebrating with the American revolutionists. The shot that was fired at Lexington was heard around the whole world.

Howard Vernon went to Homestead Thursday to visit.

TRY TO LIBERATE PRISONER; TWO DEAD

When the men felt there was a lull
in the fighting and the mob fell back,
Citizens hearing the shooting rushed to the spot. Dr. B. F. Stoller was summoned. He pronounced Petros dead and ordered the other three
taken to the hospital. Policeman
Hutchcraft was attended by Dr.
Charles Lakell. He was sent to Uniontown on the 9:15 train, his injuries
proving worse than was at first reported.

The county authorities at Union-
town were notified of the shooting
and an automobile load of county
officers headed by Detective John
Smith made a fast run to Fayette
City. Other members of the mob are known and will be arrested. The body of Petros was taken in charge
by Deputy Coroner John Crowley,
who also went to Monongahela this morning to get the body of Barnock.
A post mortem examination of Petros'
body was held Thursday night, and the bullet located. It did not penetrate the heart. Deputy Coroner Crowley is arranging for an inquest which will probably be held some time today.

There is considerable talk about the shooting in Fayette City. Citizens
generally do not blame Policeman Hutchcraft, but there is some talk
against him among the foreigners.
The disturbance at the Grandview
hall is said to have started with a drinking bout. Uhar was said to have become disorderly and to have been put out once by those who later tried to get him out of the lockup. He went to the lockup peaceably enough and was not concerned in the final trouble.

It was caused by a window falling on his hand, the pain of which caused a to the office but Mr. Sheets suffered no serious consequences from the attack, which soon passed away.

Climate Failed—

Medicine Cured

It has been absolutely shown that rest, fresh air, and good food do help many persons suffering from Tuberculosis. But to be really honest, it must be admitted that the disease is seldom more than "trivial." Something more is needed.

Eckman's Alternative is a medicine made for the cure of Tuberculosis. It has cured this disease again and again. Often those cases have been effected where the surroundings were not ideal, where no intelligent care was taken of the patient where money was scarce, good food and cooking unusual—yet cures resulted. Now we argue and urge that Eckman's Alternative should be used in every case of Tuberculosis. In addition to good, nourishing food and fresh air, which we all need.

The facts—the evidence of cures that have been made—are interesting reading. "Remarkable cure follows."—Weldon, Ill. "Gentlemen:—Through Eckman's Alternative I have been saved from a premature grave and, feeling that I might benefit suffering humanity, I take pleasure in writing you a brief history of my sickness, which you are at liberty to use." "On December 14, 1904, I was taken with Typhoid Pneumonia. My lungs became very much affected; my sputum was examined and Tuberculosis bacilli were found. On February 21st, 1905, was advised to go to Fort Worth, Texas. While there an abscess in my right lung broke and discharged. I grew worse, and became very much emaciated. My physician informed me that I must go to Colorado as quickly as possible. I left Texas June 1st, and arrived in Canon City June 2nd, very feeble. After being there two weeks, my physician informed me that nothing could be done, as my case was hopeless. Three weeks later I returned home, weighing 103 pounds, the doctor having given me no assurance of reaching there alive.

"On July 14, 1906, I began taking Eckman's wonderful remedy for Consumption. It having been highly recommended, today I weigh 154 pounds. I am stout and well and can do any kind of work about my grain elevator. I have no ache or pain in my lungs, eat well, sleep well, and never felt better. I would be glad if every person afflicted with Tuberculosis took Eckman's cure." (Signed) AMBROSIO ARTHUR WEBB. Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system where not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. He Wouldn't Advertise

Breathes there a man, with soul so dead
Who never to himself hath said:
"My trade of late is getting bad, I'll try another eight-inch ad."
If such there be, go mark him well;
For him no bank account shall swell,
No angels watch the golden stair
To welcome home the millionaire
The man who never asks for trade
By local line or ad. displayed.
Cares more for rest than worldly gain,
And patronage but gives him pain,
Tread lightly friends; let no rude sound
Disturb his solitude profound,
Here let him live in calm repose, Unsought except by men he owes
And when he dies, go plant him deep,
That naught may break his dreamless sleep;
Where no rude clamor may dispel
The quiet that he loved so well.
And when the world may know its loss,
Place on his grave a wreath of moss,
And on the stone above, "Here lies
A chump who wouldn't advertise."

Advertise and the world is with you!

Don't and you'll be alone.

One of Wesley's reasons for shifting his preachers every three years was undoubtedly that they might be able to reach the same sermon over again in different congregations. He knew by experience the difficulty of sermon making. After a few weeks, he said, a preacher cannot find matter for preaching every morning and evening, nor will the people come to hear him, whereas if he never stays more than a fortnight in one place he will find plenty of matter, and the people will hear him gladly. I knew that were I to preach one whole year in one place I should preach both myself and my congregation to sleep.

Bacon Sandwiches.
Wicks of breakfast bacon, delicately broiled, make the most appetizing of sandwiches, especially if put between toasted slices of graham bread. The small shreds of bacon must be on bottom and be seasoned with paprika.

The first to rule over all England was Egbert, King of Wessex, who united all the various petty kingdoms and became King of England in 877. The greater kingdom was disrupted from 878 to 958, when the Danes ruled north of the Thames. In the latter year King Edgar reunited the kingdom and since that time it has never been partitioned. Between Edmund Ironside (1016) and Edward the Confessor (1042) three Danish kings ruled all England, Canute, Harold I. and Hardicanute. The first king of Great Britain was James I. (1603). The first king of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland was George III. From the conquest of Ireland in 1173 by Henry II. the kings of England were styled Lord of Ireland until the assumption of the title King of Ireland by Henry VIII., and thereafter this title was used until the act of union in 1801. The imperial sovereignty of India was assumed by Queen Victoria.

Publicity!

THE PRIMER OF SUCCESS

Do you want a position?
Do you want a girl?
Do you want to rent your furnished room?
Do you want to sell your house?
Do you want to sell your eggs, poultry or live stock?
Have you lost anything?
Have you anything to trade?
Do you want to sell your piano?

There are many who want to do one or the other of these things. Most of them don't know how to go about it. If they could only tell the people what they want they would be all right. If they could only let the people know without disclosing their identity that might be better still.

If you want to buy, sell or secure any of the above, or if you want to trade anything, did it ever occur to you that the best thing in the world to do is to use the Classified Columns of the Mail.

Why do we give you this advice? To make business for ourselves? Certainly! To help you? Just as certainly! We are the medium between you and what you want. LOCAL FANS

INTERESTED IN PIRATES

Local fans are now attending the ball games at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh pretty regularly these days. The Pittsburgh team will be at home nearly all through the month of July, and scarcely a day goes by but what a delegation is in attendance at the Pittsburgh games. Charleroi was well represented at the two games with Cincinnati on the Fourth and a number went down today to witness the game.

Cincinnati plays today and tomorrow and the Pirates expect to take the whole four. The afternoon game with Cincinnati on the Fourth was one of the most sensational ones ever played on the field. With Pittsburgh at bat in the last half of the ninth inning, and the score 2 to 1 in favor of Cincinnati, and after two men were out, Ham Hyatt, the noted pinch hitter, was sent to bat. He smashed a two-bagger which brought in two men on bases, winning the game. Twenty-three thousand excited fans nearly split their throats when the hit was made.

FOURTH GAME

EASILY WON BY CATHOLICS

Most baseball games are featured by three things, hits, errors and scores—some aren't, but more are. July Fourth's celebration affair down at the ball park, witnessed by a goodly audience was in no wise different from the ordinary, but was very characteristic. The victory was St. Jerome's by the score of 15 to 6, the Methodists holding tight to the tail end of the affair.

The Catholics started in to win when the game was young and didn't have to take dictation from anybody the rest of the fracas. They lacerated the pill for three hits in the first and four scores were the result. The Methodist string did not come up to the Catholics by half, theirs being only two. St. Jerome's scored in the third, seventh, eighth and even in the ninth. The Methodists annexed the rest of their scores in the sixth and the seventh. Score:

INDEPENDENTS WIN AND LOSE

Two games of ball were played by Charleroi Independents at Washington on the Fourth. The batteries were: First game—Charleroi, Briggs and McClintock and Guder; Washington, Enoch and McWilliams. Second game—Charleroi, Kifer and Guder; Washington, Murray and McWilliams.

Wooden Leg Joke.

Why is it, as a writer in the Bell-nan points out, that the general sense of humor is stirred when anything happens to a man's wooden leg, such as its loss or a knothole coming in it, or getting it under the cars? It is or was the same way with stealing a man's horse in the Far West. Both of these accidents are serious. Yet they are supposed to be subjects for mirth.—Minneapolis Journal

In Ancient Days.

The chimney corner was a favorite place for early settlers when they took their tobacco. Buckets were the chief reliance of the fire fighters. When an alarm was cried each citizen grabbed his buckets and ran to answer it. If he couldn't respond in an instant he threw his buckets out his window and his neighbor picked them up and carried them along.

Hold Picnic.

A picnic was held during the Fourth by a party of young folks on the Lowstutter lot between the boroughs of Charleroi and North Charleroi. The usual picnic features were in order and an enjoyable day was spent in the open.

King George Owns Sandringham.

The statement is again being published that Sandringham is the absolute property of Queen Alexandra. As a matter of fact in the will of the late King Edward the whole estate was left solely to King George, his late majesty merely stipulating that the queen mother should have the entire use of it during her lifetime and adding a wish that in the future the place might become the dower house of the queen consort. King George is, however, in no way bound by this, and is at liberty when the proper time arrives to dispose of it in any manner that seems best to him. In the meantime he has entire charge of the estate, pays all the outgoings and receives the income.

Policeman Hutchcraft, Terribly Beaten, Fires With Fatal Effect Into Mob

Two With Bullet Holes in Bodies Are Cared For—Fayette County Authorities Making Investigation

Two men are dead and three others are in the hospital seriously injured as the result of an attack of an angry mob of Slavs upon the Fayette City lockup Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock in an effort to liberate a prisoner whom Chief of Police J. W. Hutchcraft had placed under arrest. The policeman fired in self defense into the crowd after having been terribly beaten and mauled with his own mace.

THE DEAD.

Samuel Petros, aged 26, of Smock, single, shot near heart; killed instantly.

Mike Barnock, aged 25 of Fayette City, shot once in abdomen and twice in breast; leaves wife and one child; died this morning at 1:10 o'clock at Memorial Hospital, Monongahela.

THE INJURED.

Frank Vesely, aged 28, shot in abdomen; taken to Monongahela hospital.

Peter Vesely, aged 40, shot in abdomen; taken to Uniontown hospital. Chief of Police J. W. Hutchcraft, head almost beaten to pulp and cut about neck; injuries severe, but will not prove fatal; married and has one child; taken to Uniontown hospital.

Shortly before 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Policeman Hutchcraft was called to the Grandview hall on Fayette City hill, where a Slavish celebration was in progress. He had quelled trouble there not long before. He placed under arrest John Uhar, and started to the lockup with him. On the way there he lost his gun from his pocket.

The gun was picked up by a Slavish woman, it is stated, who in turn took it home and told some of her friends. A crowd of about 60 foreigners followed the policeman and the man under arrest. Uhar was placed in a cell. On the way to the jail Burgess William Ashton had given Police Hutchcraft a gun, fearing trouble with the mob following.

After placing Uhar in his cell Hutchcraft stepped to the door. A part of the mob surged in, including the four who were shot. Thinking he had no gun, it is said, they attacked him. Taking his mace from him, the foreigners started in to beat up the policeman. They kicked him in the head and mauled him terribly before he managed to pull the gun given him by Burgess Ashton from his pocket. He started firing somewhat blindly, but every bullet took effect. Petros started from the door of the lockup, walked about 30 feet and fell dead. Barnock fell to the sidewalk. The two Veselys fell and were unable to arise.

Celebration of German Almost Ends Disastrously—"Gun" Whizzes Two-Hundred Feet to Land on a Porch

When he loaded a piece of bent gas from a tree. The gas pipe, its force pipe with piston and valve on the Fourth, Joe Cherven, a German, didn't think of the dire consequences likely to follow. He planted it in Prospect alley and touched the fuse. There was a tremendous explosion. A piece of the gas pipe sailed out of the ground and took in the direction of Lincoln avenue. It whizzed past the head of a woman not missing but more than a foot and shattered a limb.

FIRECRACKER AND PISTOL REAP TOLL

One Boy Accidentally Shoots Hole in Hand—Two Others Have Eyes Injured of Which One May Lose Sight

The Fourth of July was not without its toll of accidents in Charleroi, firecrackers and toy guns doing their damage. A number were slightly burned, and one boy may lose the sight of one eye as the result of his Fourth celebration.

In the morning Kenneth Hill, the 13-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hill, accidentally pulled the trigger of a blank cartridge gun when the mouth of the weapon was almost against his left hand. The powder went nearly through his hand. He ran to the office of Dr. T. M. Fadden, who dressed the wound.

Franklin Thompson, colored the 18-year old son of Jess Thompson of North Charleroi may lose the sight of one eye from the effects of Fourth of July celebrating. The boy says he was watching some others firing firecrackers when a large cracker thrown by one of them exploded in front of his eye. Dr. Stahlman attended him.

Earl Mahoney aged 10, son of Mrs. J. Mahoney of McKean avenue sustained a painful injury to an eye through holding a firecracker in his hand while shooting it off. His eyesight will be saved. Dr. Stahlman dressed the injury.

The five-year old son of Peter Gerdon at Allentown had his face badly burned by a firecracker. It is not thought the boy will suffer any ill consequences.

Many go Out of Town for the Day—Donora Proves Popular Place

The Fourth was rather quietly spent in Charleroi, the children's sports at the playgrounds in the afternoon and the ball game being practically the only features. Large crowds went to Donora to witness the big celebration there and Eldora Park proved an attractive place. Rain drove a large part of the crowd home early but that was after a good part of the celebration was over. At Donora there was a good program, which consisted of a balloon ascension, a monster parade led of Nirela's band of Pittsburgh, speechmaking, a marathon race a field meet and fireworks. The field meet was hotly contested. Paul Nutt of Charleroi won third place for the Monessen A. C. team in the relay. Albert Schoener took part in the marathon race.

Thomas Moser visited over the Fourth in Uniontown.

Eldora Proves an Attractive Place—Program as Announced, Carried Out

One of the largest crowds in the history of the resort was at Eldora Park on the Fourth. It was a great day for the young people, who were there to dance and to have a good time generally. There were family and neighborly picnics galore, and large crowds came and went during the entire day. While the rain in the evening slightly dampened the ardor of the merry-makers, it did not have much of any effect on the enjoyment. All the park amusements were taxed to their limit, and the fireworks display in the evening was highly enjoyed.

CELEBRATION JULY 18

Rain coming just at the time when the celebration was about to start, put a sudden and unlooked for end to the Fourth of July observance in Charleroi Thursday evening. Preparations had just been about made to start the celebration. The chief features of the celebration, the band was on the scene, and the people were gathering when the storm came. This was at 6 o'clock, and the rain lasted throughout the greater part of the evening, so that a postponement of festivities was absolutely necessary. Consequently the only celebration out of the ordinary was a brief band concert given by a make-up band at the corner of McKean avenue and Fifth street. This band, an affair made up for the occasion consisted of some of the best talent of the Monongahela valley, including some of the former members of the Charleroi Concert band. A celebration of the twentieth anniversary of the incorporation of the borough will take place on July 18 to take the place of the Fourth event.

Children were being placed in line at the playgrounds in "The Pines" ready for the parade. Almost without warning the rain came and the children had to scamper for shelter.

During the afternoon a good program of sports was gone through at the playgrounds by the children. This program consisted of races and contests of various kinds.

ENTERTAINS CLASS OF HIGH SCHOOL

Miss Violet Lutes entertained about 22 of her classmates on Wednesday evening at her country home in Fallowfield township. At about 8 o'clock, her guests, the Charleroi High school classes of 1912 and 1913 were invited to the dining room where they partook of a bountiful chicken dinner, after which music and games were the order of the evening. At 11 o'clock, the hostess brought in a lunch of ice cream, cake, etc to keep her guests from "heat prostrations" during the long ride homeward. Somewhere around 12:30 o'clock, the citizens of Charleroi were awakened by the beautiful strains of "My Country 'Tis of Thee," when, upon investigation it was found to be none other than those young patriots ushering in the grand and glorious Fourth of July, from the seats of Latham's large delivery wagon.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church were entertained Wednesday at the home of Mrs. S. E. Rodgers of Fallowfield township. About 60 were present and an elegant country dinner was served under the shade of the big trees on the lawn. The program of the afternoon was helpful and spiritual. Mrs. Vankirk as usual inspired all with her cheery words and made an earnest plea for new members. Mrs. Daily of Pittsburgh told briefly of the good being done by the different auxiliaries, and gave glimpses of real life in India and China and the good work being done by our missionaries. Mrs. Fenness spoke of the schools and missionary work in Mexico. Little Egbert Richards was made a life member of The Light Bearers. Through the kindness of W. B. Pfelehardt excellent automobile service was provided to take the ladies to and from the Rodgers home, for which the society extend many thanks.

Five persons were seriously injured and 10 others hurt to some extent at Monessen the morning of the Fourth. A group of 25 were standing on the porch over Peter Schwartz' meat market at 250 Donner avenue watching the parade at about 10:30. As certain part of the parade passed there was unusual excitement and those standing on the porch started to applaud and stamp their feet. This caused the porch to give way. The occupants were dashed to the street 16 or 20 feet below, falling in a mass. Saborna's head came in contact with the pavement it is understood, and caused concussion of the brain. He has been in this country only about a month, his mother and father living in the old country.

Charleroi Military Organizations Go to Perryopolis

ROYALLY ENTERTAINED

The Charleroi Brigade, Capt. R. Dale Jolliffe commanding, and Company E of the Boys Brigade of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church, Capt. Charles Wallgren commanding, went to Perryopolis on the Fourth to take part in a sham battle which was a part of a Fourth of July celebration at the town founded by George Washington. The Charleroi forces were united in an offensive battle against the Perryopolis and Belle Vernon military companies, making a normal attack, which was followed by an exciting and spectacular battle. There were no judges, and no decision was rendered. The Charleroi boys and their commanders, however, believe they gave a good account of themselves. All were royally entertained by the people of Perryopolis and the campaign was as enjoyable as it was bloodless.

CHARLEROI COUPLE WEDS ON FOURTH

William L. Holt and Miss Mary Alice Patterson, both of Charleroi, were quietly married at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning. Rev. E. N. Duty, of the First Christian church performed the ceremony at his home on Crest avenue. The ring ceremony was used. The wedding was a quiet affair. The couple will go to housekeeping at 1001 1-2 Tenth street where they have a home furnished.

B. Y. P. U. TO HOLD GROUP RALLY AT LIBRARY CHURCH

There were ten arrests made on the Fourth by the police, the day being comparatively quiet. These ten consisted of the usual D. and D. crowd with one exception. The exception was a fight between a couple of foreigners.

SOME OBJECT LESSONS.

Once more the celebration of our
national holiday, the Fourth of July,
emphasizes the necessity for a safe
and sane observance. While the toll

of accidents in our community is not
large or serious, looking at it imper-
sonally and collectively, it is enough
to cause still more serious consideration another year. A few minor accidents considered in the aggregate
do not cause much public concern, but
when these come individually into the
household, and the suffering, cost and
inconvenience and handicaps from the
accidents that follow are considered,
it puts a new light on the subject.
Then it is that we resolve to be more
careful another year, and in safe-
guarding our own families, it also behooves us to safeguard the families of
others as well.

There are many ways that the Fourth of July may be fittingly celebrated other than by the indiscriminate use of explosives. One of the methods that is coming in vogue, and
for which a special plea is being
made, is by means of historical pa-
rants. This affords a wide field in a way of public attractions, and its
scope is practically limitless. Demonstrations that appeal to the intellect and imagination may be made
to take the place of the more rude
and barbarous methods of noise and
danger, and it is these that should
occupy the minds of our patriotic
people in the future. A single child
minus an eye, a hand or in an otherwise crippled condition is an object
lesson of sufficient import in any
community to furnish an impetus for
a safer and more sane observance of the Fourth of July.

In the lull between the close of the National conventions of the two
great political parties and the opening of the campaign, it is well for
us to take a sober, second thought on the economic conditions of the country, as well as the causes and
effects of political agitation generally. If this is done in the proper
spirit by the people in general, it will be away with much of the partisan bitterness and rancor that usually arises during a Presidential campaign.

There is no reason why a National
campaign should be detrimental to
business if each and every person accepts the differences of political opinions as a matter of principle and not personalities, and if each side will

refrain from accusing the other of
trying to wreck the business of the country and destroy the government.
There may be an honest difference
of opinion as to a correct fiscal policy,
but as for one side trying to ruin
the country, that is the sheerest non-
sense. It is this bitter partisanship
that makes political campaigns disastrous to business, and if this can
be eliminated, no checks to the great
industrial impetus that is now apparent will be encountered. When each
citizen ceases to believe that this
neighbor of opposite political faith is a
traitor and accords him the same
privilege that he claims for himself
political campaigns will have no effect upon the business of the country.

"What do foreigners know about the Fourth of July?" That was a question that was perhaps asked many
times during the day Thursday,
when the foreigner was very much in evidence as a holiday seeker in this community. That the foreigner is
not imbued with the spirit of the day,
however, is a mistaken belief, as
there is hardly a nation of continental
Europe that has not in times gone by
been fired with the spirit of revolt
very similar to our own American Revolution, and the memory of these
whether successful or unsuccessful,
is still fired by observance of our own
glorious anniversary. The following from the Pittsburgh Dispatch reveals
the true sentiment of the foreigner
regarding the celebration of the Fourth
of July, and the memories it awakens
regarding the strikes for liberty and freedom in their own respective countries.

"What the dickens do you fellows
care for the American Fourth of July?" was the blunt query put to a
motley bunch in one of the most cosmopolitan saloons of the city on "the Hill," of course, where there was a
goodly representation of all the nations that go to make up the wonderful population of Pittsburgh.

"Yet, on your Fourth of July?" said

a swarthy Calabrian in answer.
"Est-a-ees remembra youra granda
revolution. We too—a celebra our revolution. Italia Unita! Viva Vittorio!"

"And what matter you not forget
our 14 Juillet, Thermidor, ze gran
consummacion of ze greatrevolution
Francaise, 1793?" was the indignant
cry of a Frenchman.

"Your Declaration was in 1776 and
when you yet were talk about your
constitutioning we made our Republique
Premier by ze fine fait accompli of Monsieur Guillotine, and we cut ze
head off from Louis XVI and Marie de Austrie. We do celebrate your Juillet 4 for ze grand raison zat it is
ze celebration of all revolutioning.
Vive le Revolutioning!"

"And here's a glass to de memoir
of de great Kosciusko, who fought for
de freedom of Poland and Count Pulaski, who help your Washington to
win de grand Etats Unis from de Britons," shouted a Pole.

"And one glass other for Lajos Kossuth, who made for the Hun revolution of 1848, to destroy the rule of the Austrians," cried a bearded Hungarian.

"And here's a bowl of wine of Hel-
las to the memory of Markos Bozza-
ris, hero of Missolonghi," screamed
a handsome Greek.

"And a libation of Falernian to the memory of Garibaldi, the Washington of Italy," said another Italian.

So the cosmopolitan celebration of America's Fourth rang through the
people of the nations, each exclaimant having a national and revolutionary reason for celebrating with the American revolutionists. The shot
that was fired at Lexington was
heard around the whole world.

Howard Vernon went to Homestead Thursday to visit.

TRY TO LIBERATE

PRISONER; TWO DEAD

When the men fell there was a lull
in the fighting and the mob fell back.
Citizens hearing the shooting rushed
to the spot. Dr. B. F. Stoller was summoned. He pronounced Petros
dead and ordered the other three
taken to the hospital. Policeman
Hutchcraft was attended by Dr.
Charles Lakell. He was sent to Un-
iontown on the 9:15 train, his injuries
proving worse than was at first reported.

The county authorities at Union-
town were notified of the shooting
and an automobile load of county
officers headed by Detective John
Smith made a fast run to Fayette
City. Other members of the mob are known and will be arrested. The body of Petros was taken in charge
by Deputy Coroner John Crowley,
who also went to Monongahela this
morning to get the body of Barnock.
A post mortem examination of Petros'
body was held Thursday night, and the bullet located. It did not penetrate the heart. Deputy Coroner Crowley is arranging for an inquest
which will probably be held some time today.

There is considerable talk about the
shooting in Fayette City. Citizens
generally do not blame Policeman
Hutchcraft, but there is some talk
against him among the foreigners.
The disturbance at the Grandview
hall is said to have started with a drinking bout. Uhar was said to have become disorderly and to have been
put out once by those who later tried to get him out of the lockup. He went to the lockup peacefully enough and was not concerned in the final trouble.

With Pittsburg at bat in the last half of the ninth inning, and the score 2 to 1 in favor of Cincinnati, and after two men were out, Ham Hyatt, the noted pinch hitter, came to bat. FOURTH GAME

EASILY WON BY CATHOLICS

Most baseball games are featured by three things, hits, errors and scores—some aren't, but more are. July Fourth's celebration affair down at the ball park, witnessed by a goggly audience was in no wise different from the ordinary, but was very characteristic. The victory was St. Jerome's by the score of 15 to 6, the Methodists holding tight to the tail end of the affair.

The Catholics started in to win when the game was young and didn't have to take dictation from anybody the rest of the fracas. They lacerated the pill for three hits in the first and four scores were the result. The Methodist string did not come up to the Catholics by half, theirs being only two. St. Jerome's scored in the third, the seventh, the eighth and even in the ninth. The Methodists annexed the rest of their scores in the sixth and the seventh. Score:

INDEPENDENTS WIN AND LOSE

Two games of ball were played by Charleroi Independents at Washington on the Fourth. The result was an even break, Charleroi losing the forenoon game by a score of 3 to 3, and winning the afternoon game by a score of 6 to 4. The batteries were: First game—Charleroi, Briggs and McClintock and Guder; Washington, Enoch and McWilliams. Second game—Charleroi, Kifer and Guder; Washington, Murray and McWilliams.

Not Those Two.

Said: "Do you think a man can afford to indulge in two luxuries at the same time?" Cynicus—"Not if they happen to be a wife and a champagne supper appetite."

Doubting Tom.

"Young men believe in nothing nowadays," says Mrs. Ramsbotham, with a deep sigh. "Why, there's my nephew, Tom, who was brought up as a Christian, and now he's an acrosto."

Mean Thing!

Mrs. Henpecke—"John, why are you reading the marriage notices?" Mr. Henpecke—"I just want to see if there isn't somebody married I don't like."

In Ancient Days.

The chimney corner was a favorite place for early settlers when they took their tobacco. Buckets were the chief reliance of the fire fighters. When an alarm was cried each citizen grabbed his buckets and ran to answer it. If he couldn't respond in an instant he threw his buckets out his window, and his neighbor picked them up and carried them along.

Hold Picnic.

A picnic was held during the Fourth by a party of young folks on the Low-stutter lot between the boroughs of Charleroi and North Charleroi. The usual picnic features were in order and an enjoyable day was spent in the open.

King George Owns Sandringham.

The statement is again being published that Sandringham is the absolute property of Queen Alexandra. As a matter of fact in the will of the late King Edward the whole estate was left solely to King George, his late majesty merely stipulating that the queen mother should have the entire use of it during her lifetime and adding a wish that in the future the place might become the dower house of the queen consort. King George is, however, in no way bound by this, and is at liberty when the proper time arrives to dispose of it in any manner that seems best to him. In the meantime he has entire charge of the estate, pays all the outgoings and receives the income.
